

TODAY: Partly sunny/breezy high 66 tonight cloudy low 47. Cloudy this week breezy and highs near 70 in the extended forecast in the eastern Columbia River Gorge.

INFLATION cooled last month as President Trump's widespread tariffs took affect.

RUSSIA and Ukraine talks begin in the Turkish capital this week as President Trump has urged the two sides to attend the discussions to stop the fighting.

PRESIDENT TRUMP signed a number of economic cooperation agreements in Saudi Arabia at the start of the four-day Middle East trip.

RANDY PARKS who was found dead along I-5 in Oregon has been identified after nearly 45 years and police say a notorious California serial killer Randy Kraft is the only person under investigation.

UNIVERSITY of Washington suspended the 21 students arrested for occupying a building during a pro-Palestinian protest at the school this week.

Election ballots for North Wasco County School District are in the hands of the voters. Seeking the position are in Zone 1 Betsy Hege, Zone 4 David Polehn vs current board member John Nelson, Zone 5 Kevin Kramer and Shannon Wilkinson, Zone 7 Steve Lawrence and Katie Kelley.

KLICKITAT County Commissioners meet today with a morning workshop at 9:30 that features updates from public works and other topics. The afternoon session includes a hearing on a short plat and a report by airport manager Jeff Renard.

THE DALLES Girls Softball team 10-2 in league action had their game at Gladstone rained out yesterday scoreless in the 3rd inning. The game will be played today at Gladstone weather permitting.

THE DALLES Baseball team 10-3 in league after losing to Gladstone yesterday 3-2 and they host Estacada Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 at Quinton Street Ballpark. KODL Sports has the broadcast on FM 100.7/99.1 AM 1440 and Streaming at KODL.COM.

JOIN Al Wynn this morning at 10:06 for the KODL COFFEEBREAK Show 11, 442 "LIVE" at Cousins Restaurant at 10:06. TODAY: Adventist Health and then Katie Kelley candidate for NWC School Board is on the show. WED: Rodger Nichols talks about local issues.

Ideas for the show call 541-296-2191 or email newsroom@kodl.com.

THE DALLES City Council met last night with a four hour meeting on an appeal against a proposed subdivision plan to build 14 homes in the first phase and 15 home in phase 2. The planning decision was given to the city council voting to deny the appeal and allow the project to continue.

KLICKITAT County residents are concerned about what the Washington State Energy Facility Sitting Council was thinking to not require the controversial Carriger solar farm to skip an environmental study and a formal hearing requested by the Yakama Nation.

CITY of The Dalles Public Works paving project continues through Wednesday at W. 2nd Street and Webber St. and the On-Ramp to I-84. Work hours 7am to 5 pm.

THE DALLES LIONS meet today at 12 noon for their weekly meeting at Spooky's.

NWC School District Budget Committee meets Tuesday May 13th in the commons at The Dalles Middle School at 5:30 pm.

THE DALLES tests the City Hall Emergency Siren at noon tomorrow Wednesday May 14th.

WASCO County Soil and Water District has a public board meeting Wednesday May 14th at 1 pm at the District Offices on River Road in The Dalles.

THE DALLES Kiwanis Club meets for lunch Thursday at 12 noon at Spooky's in The Dalles

WISDOM KEY: "ENDURANCE DEMORALIZES YOUR ADVERSARY"

SUNNY/BREEZY...HIGH 66LOW 47